

ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company is cognizant that enterprise risk management is integral to an effective corporate governance process. Its size, risk profile and complexity of operations however, does not necessitate the establishment of a separate Board Risk Oversight Committee which is generally for conglomerates and companies with a high risk profile. The Company's Audit Committee performs the duties and responsibilities of a Board Risk Oversight Committee.